INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS

Club Opening Times:

The club is routinely open from 5pm 'til late on a Thursday and Friday and on Sunday afternoon folk music enthusiasts play and sing along from 1pm to 5pm. On Tuesday evening the club is open from 7pm with the Goulburn Men's Choir until 9.30 pm. Saturdays can be booked for private functions. This is free for members if there are 40 or more guests and the bar is open. Booking information and a function booking form are available on the club website: www.goulburnclub.com.au

What's on:

Every second Friday from 7.30pm is "Open Mic" night.

Information about which performers are playing at the club on other nights, and when functions have been booked can be seen on the club calendar, available at: www.goulburnclub.com.au/calendar/

Events and entertainment is listed on the website events page: <http://goulburnclub.com.au/friday/>

The club also has a Facebook page. www.facebook.com/pages/Goulburn-Club/177951288887781. Like it and keep up to date with activities.

The Club sends out a weekly newsletter with up to date information about coming events. For information to be included in the newsletter send your email to Michael Baker at mjbaker1@mac.com

Ukulele Band:

"GRUB": Goulburn Regional Ukulele Band - Do you play a Ukulele or would like to learn? Join the happy strummers at the Club every Thursday from 6pm (for more information check out the GRUB website : <http://ronmclaughlin.wix.com/grubukuleles>)

Constitution:

A copy of the Goulburn Club Constitution and the Clubs Bylaws may be obtained on the Club website Membership page at: www.goulburnclub.com.au/about-us/membership/. A copy is also available in the Club Foyer.

Volunteering:

The Goulburn Club is staffed and run by Volunteers. If you would like to become involved, we would be very grateful for your help. Volunteers help as bar volunteers as well as in a number of other ways. For functions, for example, we are always looking for people to help monitor the signing in. If you are interested in helping behind the bar, the Club will refund the costs of your RSA card (Responsible Service of Alcohol) after six bar shifts. If you are interested in helping, please contact any one on the Board, or bar staff.

Squash Court:

There is a squash court at the back of the Goulburn Club premises. The court has just been refurbished and is now up to competition standard. This court is available for members and the public to use. Discounts to Club members apply. To see when the court is available, check the "GC squash" calendar on www.goulburnclub.com.au/squash/. To arrange access to the court, please contact Des Rowley on 0428 483 337. You can also email squash@goulburnclub.com.au.

Club Caretaker:

The club caretaker is Phillip Jones. Phillip and his dog Widget reside at the back of the club premises.

Ground Floor Tenants:

Parts of the ground floor area of the club are leased to tenants. The tenants have use of the downstairs kitchen. This is also available for members' private functions.

Registered Club:

The Goulburn Club is a registered club. You need to carry your membership card while on the Club licenced premises. Non-member guests can be signed in, in the guest register book.
